Over 2,000 Democratic Precinct Election Boards, 119 Democratic County Election Boards, and a solidly Democratic State Election Board, every one the creation of Mr. Goebel or his agents—certified to the following vote cast at the election held in Kentucky on Tuesday, November 7, 1900:

William S. Taylor.....193,714
William Goebel.....191,331
Taylor's Plurality.....2,383

It is believed that the Hon. GEORGE L. WELLINGTON is engaged in looking into the wrong end of his Waterloo.

The immigration figures indicate that the foreigners seeking new homes are not the least bit influenced by the Democratic predictions of the destruction of the Republic.

GENERAL JOHN M. PALMER announces that he will cast his vote for McKinley and Roosevelt. The old soldier understands the best way to accomplish a desired result.

SENATOR JOHN T. MORGAN presents the idea that the Democrats can make "anti-imperialism" a paramount issue. He holds that there are too many Democratic Expansionists like himself.

Is the State Senate Tuesday Senator HARREL created something of a sensation by offering a resolution that the Committee on Elections, now composed of five Democrats, be supplemented by the addition of Senators McCONELL, Populist; ALEXANDER, anti-Goebel; and BURNAM, Cox and Kirk, Republicans.

By Mr. BRYAN care to be candid he could discourse more learnedly upon the art of accumulating wealth than any of the other candidates in the field. Mr. BRYAN is the wealthiest candidate before the people today, and he has made his money since the inauguration of the policies against which he declaimed so vigorously. Yet Mr. BRYAN is selfish enough, to decline to give the Republican Administration the proper credit for his good fortune.

In opening the campaign at Bowling Green on Monday Mr. YERKES made a telling point by showing that Mr. BECKHAM as Speaker of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly that passed the Goebel Election Law stood side by side with Mr. Goebel in forcing that iniquitous law upon the statute books, voted against every amendment tending to lessen its infamy and used the power of his office to insure the passage of the bill through the House.

Thousands suffer with torpid liver, produce acid depression of spirits, indigestion, constipation, the liver, which will stimulate the liver, keep the bowels regular and restore the buoyancy of spirits. Price, 50 cents. J. W. Wood & Son.

The venerable Dr. B. D. Owens was among those met at the sale of Mr. John Holton Tuesday. His health is much improved.

TESTS PATIENCE.

The Most Patient Mayville Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times.

Nothing spoils a good disposition, Nothing taxes a man's patience Like any itching of the skin. Itching piles almost drive you crazy. All day it makes you miserable. All night it keeps you awake. 'Tch! 'Tch! 'Tch! With no relief. Just the same with eczema. Can hardly keep from scratching it. You would do so, but you know it makes it worse.

Such miseries are daily decreasing. People are learning that there is relief. Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment. Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure piles, eczema or any itching of the skin. Read the testimony of a Mayville citizen.

Mrs. H. Poth of Forest avenue says: "Doan's Ointment cured me of my eczema. For a long time I had an itching of the scalp, which was particularly troublesome just before a rain. Learning that Doan's Ointment was highly recommended for all troubles of this nature, I got a box at J. W. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. I use soon ended the irritation. Two months have since elapsed and I have had no return whatever of the affliction."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. FOSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hiss of the Sixth Ward, is ill in a hospital at Manila.

Rev. S. B. Alderson is Moderator of Portsmouth Presbytery, which meets at Decatur, O., next Tuesday.

Mr. C. Porter Skinner of this city, who has been attending the Cincinnati School of Phonography, now has a position as stenographer in the office of the Big Four Fast Freight Lines at Cincinnati.

Among the dozen special attractions expected for the Oriental Plaza, a department of the Cincinnati Fall Festival, the $25,000 troupe of Great Danes owned by Colonel Magnus Schulte will delight probably as many visitors as any single feature of the big show. These animals are widely known as the most intelligent group of performing dogs ever exhibited.

BOND'S SPECIFIC.

MAYVILLE, KY., Dec. 14, 1890. The Herb Medicine Co.—Dear Sir: I have been a great sufferer for many years with that dread disease asthma. I tried everything that I could hear of, but never found anything that did me any good until I took Bond's Specific. I have taken two bottles and it did me more good than all the other treatment ever tried. I think two more bottles will cure me sound and well. Respectfully, Mrs. JOHN FRABIE.

For sale by Henry W. Ray, J. James Wood & Son at Chenoweth's Drugstore.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhea After Thirty Years of Suffering. "I suffered for thirty years with diarrhea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have. For sale by J. W. Wood & Son, Drugstore."

WILL BE NO CLASH

The Answers to the Powers to Russia's Proposal Are Reported to Be Satisfactory.

THE EXACT NATURE NOT MADE PUBLIC

Prospects of an Early Settlement of the Vexatious Questions in the Chinese Empire.

Either Minister Conger or Mr. Rockhill Will Represent the United States in the Final Settlement of the Matter.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Within the last 24 hours the United States government has received from its representatives at foreign capitals much information upon the attitude upon the Russian proposal to evacuate Peking. It is stated positively that any prospect of a serious international clash has been largely if not entirely removed by the harmonious character of the communications the governments are making. The exact nature of these is not made public, for until all of them are in the negotiations are considered incomplete. It is said, however, that the answers are of a conclusive nature, so far as regarding the purposes of the government, although they may not be showing as conclusive in accepting or rejecting the proposition advanced by Russia. On the whole the general tendency of the responses is such as to give entire satisfaction here as to the course of the negotiations and has had the effect of directing the attention of the envoys who probably will represent the powers and China in the final settlement. The impression prevails here that the government is entirely fitted for such a task on the part of the United States, supposing that each of the powers interested in the Chinese problem has a separate and individual representative. Mr. Rockhill's name is mentioned as an alternate. These suggestions, however, are all speculative.

If the present state of affairs in China is protracted until the arrival of the Field Marshal, Count von Waldersee, which should occur in about ten days or a fortnight, it is not to be doubted that Germany will endeavor to have all the negotiations with the Chinese government conducted through him as representative of all the powers. It is gathered that strong arguments will be advanced in support of combined action through a single agency in this manner and it will be urged that there is little hope for an early adjustment of differences between the powers and China if each of the powers is to lay down an independent position.

GERMANY ACTIVE.

Many Messages Have Passed Between Berlin and Washington on the Chinese Situation.

Washington, Sept. 6.—The German official office appears to be active in the negotiations and many messages have passed between Washington and Berlin. These most likely to understand Germany's attitude look for the suggestion of a course which will be neither an acceptance or a rejection of the Russian proposal but such a satisfactory middle ground that all the powers, including Russia, can agree to it. For instance, it is suggested that Germany with propriety might suggest that the powers be fixed on the extent of the military detachments to be left at Peking, with an understanding that each small detachment be assigned to quarters so long as peace and quiet prevails in Peking, but be ready to act in case of further Chinese depredations. Diplomatic circles here think that some such compromise is about the only way of avoiding an impasse and that the best resources of diplomacy are now being used to secure it. Another diplomatic quarter believes that the compromise will be found by China's re-establishing a government and naming peace commissioners. Official information has reached Washington that steps are now being taken towards the appointment of such a commission, including Li Hung Chang, the viceroy of Nan-Kin and Wu-Chang, and Prince Ching, though reports also have named Yang Lu, Chinese viceroy of the two pacific viceroys. In such an event it is believed that Russia no longer would feel impelled to insist upon the presence of its minister and troops from Peking. It is pointed out also that in the six days since the Russian-American notes were given out the Chinese have been growing steadily in favor of continuing the presence of troops at Peking.

Outrages Continue.

Washington, Sept. 6.—If there is any change in the military situation in China since Gen. Cullen's report, supposed to be of the 10th ultimo, no word has reached Washington. It is understood that the disturbances and outrages upon the Chinese frontier in some of the districts outside of Peking. It is believed here that the foreign ministers in Peking will probably enter a protest against any withdrawal of troops if they respectably demand action upon the Russian proposition until they have had a chance to express their views.

STATE OF MINERS

Coal Operators Doing Business In Anthracite Districts Meet and Discuss the Situation.

A STATEMENT OF THEIR VIEWS MADE

The Soft Coal Interest Would Reap the Benefit In Case of Any Troubles or Strikes.

It Is Alleged That the Scale of Wages Has Not Been Reduced Within a Period of Over Twenty Years.

New York, Sept. 6.—It has been asserted that the coal operators who do business in the anthracite coal districts discussed at their meeting in this city the threatened strike among the operators, and that after a lengthy conference, a committee was appointed to draft a statement setting forth the views of the operators and refusing to recognize the United Mine Workers of America.

In view of the interest taken in the threatened strike, and in the meeting of the operators, and the fact that the United Mine Workers and their leaders are composed of soft coal men, not familiar with the conditions of anthracite mining, and the association of the operators' headquarters, which thoroughly reviews the situation from the mine owners' standpoint. The statement asserts that the United Mine Workers and their leaders are composed of soft coal men, not familiar with the conditions of anthracite mining, and the association of the operators' headquarters, which thoroughly reviews the situation from the mine owners' standpoint.

The statement then goes on to deny alleged statements coming from the United Mine Workers. It is alleged that the scale of wages has not been reduced in over 20 years, notwithstanding the numerous periods of business depression and repeated reductions in the soft coal mining regions, but, on the other hand, advances have been made in a great many mines to meet changing conditions.

The statement also denies that the market price of coal is higher than in many years, but asserts that it is much below the price received in 1892, and the profits of the business have decreased largely, owing to the increased cost of mining coal from lower depths and longer distances underground, and the increased cost of materials used around the collieries.

Regarding the power question, the statement says it is true that the price charged the miner for powder is much above the present cost, but that the advanced wage paid the miner in the anthracite districts more than covers the increased price he pays over the cost per keg in other districts.

TUTTLE'S REPORT

Condition of the Natives Along the Alaskan Coast and Adjacent Islands.

MUCH SICKNESS AND DEATH NOTED

Fully One-Half of the Residents In and Around Teller Station Have Sickened and Died.

Relief Must at Once Be Afforded Them, or They Will Perish From the Effects of Cold and Starvation.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Capt. Tuttle, of the revenue cutter service, in command of the steamer Teller, reports to the treasury department from Nome, August 9, as to the condition of the natives along the Alaskan coast and adjacent islands. At Sitka measles were epidemic and pneumonia prevalent and fatal. At Teller Station much sickness and many deaths among the natives were reported. At Cape York the same fatal sickness was found among the natives. Cape Prince of Wales showed practically the same desperate condition.

From that point the bear proceeded to East Cape Village, Siberia, and thence to St. Lawrence Bay and Port Clarence. Everywhere the vessel touched officers were sent ashore to investigate the conditions, and reported that the natives never have been in worse condition. At Teller Station affairs were desperate. Fully one-half of the natives around the station have died. In some cases the parents have been diseased, and in others the parents have died, leaving helpless children. The salmon are running, but there are not a sufficient number of people left to catch them and thus provide food for the present and the coming winter. The ravages of the disease have been so great that a great many of the natives, and the dead are left unburied in their houses. In their distress the natives in the vicinity of Teller Station are collecting there for food and medical attention.

Rev. T. L. Brevig, although not a physician, has set up a few tents and erected a temporary hospital, having hired 12 sick and 12 orphan children under his care, furnishing them with food as best he can. He is said to be in great need of pilot bread, flour and clothing for the natives in extreme distress. There is said to be no record during the last 50 years of the degree of destitution that now prevails along the whole Bering sea coast.

Capt. Tuttle concludes his report as follows: "At a conference with Gen. Brady, of Alaska, J. F. Evans, special agent of the treasury, and Dr. Shadon Jackson and myself, we discussed the deplorable condition of the natives north of Unalakleet it was decided that relief must at once be afforded them, or they would perish from cold and starvation during the coming winter. I offered to fill the bear with whatever could be procured to distribute to the natives of Cape Prince of Wales. Special Agent Evans at once ordered a load which was put on board."

Capt. Tuttle says he is going to make another trip north to investigate the few things that were received to attend to the government business. A Large Order for Native Coal. Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 6.—The Pittsburgh and Baltimore Coal Co. has received an order for 25,000 tons of coal to be sent to England by way of Baltimore. The order is the first large one the company has received for years, and is the beginning of an active crusade for foreign markets. Pittsburgh coal men say that better and larger orders can be obtained if they will put the seaboard on fire.

DON'T FORGET FACTS.

Goebel Lies Compel a True Statement of Goebel's Crime.

Louisville Evening Post.

THE TRUTH OF HISTORY.

We find in The Sun of Morgantown the following misleading paragraph:

"When Goebel was charged with the murder of Senator Sanford Governor Brown offered him a pardon, but he refused it on the grounds that he was innocent and that he would be tried before a Jury of his peers. Not so with Taylor and the others charged with the murder of Governor Goebel. They, too, declare themselves innocent, and are being subjected to the annoyance that will prevent their cases ever being called in Court."

"Charged with the murder of Sanford," Goebel killed Sanford, but he was never indicted and was never tried. The facts of the difficulty between Goebel and Sanford were not given to the public at the time. Mr. Blackburn avowed that he would see justice done, but he never did. Goebel went free, not even being subjected to the annoyance of an indictment.

It is true, that when a subsequent effort was made to indict Mr. Goebel, Governor Brown, assuming that it was persecution, conveyed to Mr. Goebel the assurance that if indicted he would be pardoned. The pardon was not delivered, because no steps were taken to make it necessary to tender it.

But at that time Governor Brown was guided merely by the facts given to the public relative to the circumstances; the provocation that led to the encounter was sedulously concealed.

The Evening Post is willing to let the dead past bury its dead. Goebel and Sanford have met before the great judgment bar. Each, in our judgment, was most foully slain, but the assassin of Goebel did not attack Goebel's character, as a preliminary to his deed of murder, as Goebel attacked the character of Sanford.

If Mr. Goebel's friends will keep referring to the story of his relations with Sanford they must expect to have the story retold from the documents now in existence.

Mr. Goebel was Senator. His ambition to be Judge of the Court of Appeals had been thwarted by the opposition of Mr. Sanford. Mr. Goebel and Mr. Sanford had been friends until a misunderstanding of a serious kind arose at a Convention in Louisville.

On April 26, 1885, Mr. Goebel published in The Covington Ledger an article attacking the personal character of Sanford, making an insinuation of the most infamous kind, as unfounded as it was infamous. The article was not written hastily, but carefully and deliberately. It was constructed so as to be as vicious as possible, and Mr. Goebel knew that it would provoke an encounter.

Mr. Sanford was a noted marksman. When the two men met Sanford, to be sure he was after the man who had written the article, asked Goebel if he was the author of the article. Goebel admitted it either in word or by a nod; two shots were fired almost simultaneously. Sanford fell with a shot in his brain; Goebel had a mere scratch.

That article did not touch at all on any public act of Colonel Sanford. It did not deal with any business transaction. It was an assault on his personal character, a stab at his personal honor, a vicious and vile that it cannot be published.

Yes; Governor Brown assured Mr. Goebel, when he thought him the victim of persecution, for merely defending himself, that he would pardon him. But Mr. Goebel was not a victim; he was the aggressor. He struck covertly at a man bold and then killed his enemy when the inevitable encounter came.

That is the story, and when the Democratic newspapers of the state write it they must write it all.
